EXPLORE YOUR UNIVERSE
06-15 FEBRUARY

..INTRODUCTION

..CONTENTS

GEMMA TURNER

The World Unite Festival is back, with a fabulous, jam-packed line-up with something for everyone to enjoy. From foodie treats to film screenings, and activities to bring cultures together from all over the world, there's plenty to keep you occupied. This year, we're especially excited about the power of humour and how laughter is expressed throughout different cultures. We have activities ranging from a laughter booth where you tell us your best joke, to karaoke where you can blast out your favourite song. I'm really excited for the huge range of events coming up, so get involved and explore your universe!

FILM

Our very own International Film Festival is into its 7th year. As always there are some brilliant films to choose from hosted by both LUU and societies.

We will be showing a strand of films to celebrate LGBT History Month, including Pride which is not yet on general release in the UK. We are also working with the Disability Action Group to explore sexuality, identity and sex through some wonderful films and documentaries.

We are also partnering with Hyde Park Picture House, Leeds International Film Festival and LUU Film Society to show a brilliant series of World acclaimed short films which will be shown at Hyde Park Picture House on Friday 13th February.

MON 09 FEB

AMOUR

7pm - 9:15pm

Parkinson Building - B.08

Free

Hosted by: LUU

Georges and Anne are an octogenarian couple. They are cultivated, retired music teachers. Their daughter, also a musician, lives in Britain with her family. One day, Anne has a stroke, and the couple's bond of love is severely tested.

ALPHABET CLUB

7pm - 9:15pm

Parkinson Building - B.11

Free

Hosted by: LUU

Part of LGBT History Month

A burst of movement; a howl of rage; a piece of poetry; a beautiful aria: Music, dance and spoken word are blended together in a short film by director Jamie Fletcher. Alphabet Club is a meditation on sex and identity. What makes us who we are and what are the options that we have to choose from?

Join the director afterwards for a Q&A about sex and identity.

VI ÄR BÄST! (WE ARE THE BEST!)

8:30pm-10:30pm

LUU - Room 1

Free

Hosted by: LUU

A joyous and sharply observant portrait of the rebellious spirit of youth. Despite having no instruments - or discernible musical talent - three young misfit girls growing up in early '80s Stockholm put all their energy into forming a punk band.

09

TUE 10 FEB

DÔNG MÃU ANH HÙNG (THE REBEL)

2pm - 4pm

LUU - Room 4

As a not-for-profit charity, we're different to most other cinemas. Our motivation is about film rather than profit, and showing great films to as many of you as we can. That's why our prices are kept as low as possible - our £5 student tickets are some of the cheapest in Leeds, and if you come on a Monday tickets are only £4 a pop!
