Help and safety

If you need help, ask a steward in a red t-shirt or purple Organisational Team t-shirt.

Please look after your belongings and supervise your children at all times. Lost children will be taken to the Information Point.

For medical help, seek assistance at the Information Point. In an emergency, contact a steward, the Information Point or call University Security on 0113 343 2222.

Photography

Official photographers will be taking photographs at the Staff Festival for use on University websites, publicity and other promotional materials.

Official charity

The official Staff Festival 2019 charity, as voted for by University staff, is SNAPS (Special Needs and Parent Support). Visit its stall, located in the Precinct, for more information on the great work it does.

Thank you

The Staff Festival would not be possible without the time and enthusiasm of University staff and the generosity of our sponsors. Thank you!
