Suggest a colleague, student or team to be a winner in the Vice-Chancellor's Awards for Health and Safety – and they could win £250* by Thursday 29th October 2015.

The Vice-Chancellor will personally choose the most inspiring application from all entries to win his own award – the sought-after Vice-Chancellor's Award for Health and Safety 2015 itself.

The judges are looking for people who have 'gone the extra mile' for health and safety in one of three award categories:

- The Services award for health and safety 2015
- The STEM faculty award for health and safety 2015
– for entries in the areas of science, technology engineering and mathematics
- The BASS faculty award for health and safety 2015
– for entries in the areas of business, arts and social sciences.

How to nominate a colleague, student or team:

- For more information speak to your Health and Safety Manager or trade union safety rep, call Health and Safety Services on 0113 343 4201 (x34201) or go to the website at www.leeds.ac.uk/safety.
- Look carefully at the conditions for each category and complete the application form. The people you nominate must be current staff members or students at the University of Leeds.
- Send the completed application to arrive with Health and Safety Services no later than 5pm on Thursday 29th October 2015.

*£250 to be provided in gift vouchers of the winner's choosing.
